Partnership Introduces New Names and Faces to Staff

CHATTANOOGA, TN – Partnership for Families, Children and Adults is proud to announce and welcome the following staff to our organization:

- Andy Santoro as Engagement Coordinator. With a background in broadcast journalism, Andy is the first point of contact for media inquiries. Andy will also advance the Partnership's mission through strategic marketing.
- Autumn Woodward as Director of Philanthropy. Autumn came on board in September and brings over ten years of experience in directing philanthropic endeavors and fund development for nonprofits.
- Carla Sewell as Director of Victim Support Services. Carla has oversight of the rape crisis center, the domestic violence center and our homeless program. Carla worked for 16 years in community services with the Hamilton County government
- Eduardo Rosano as Fiscal Services Coordinator. Eduardo oversees Partnership's finance and accounting operations including contract billing compliance and cash management. Eduardo was the CFO for a healthcare organization in Lafayette, GA.

###

About Partnership: Partnership for Families, Children and Adults is a community impact agency that has been empowering people to build better lives through crisis intervention, counseling, prevention and education programs for over 140 years. Serving thousands in Tennessee, Georgia and Alabama, Partnership for Families, Children and Adults is a United Way Member Agency and is accredited by the National Council on Accreditation. Partnership's Family Violence Center and Rape Crisis Center are the only programs in Hamilton County that provide comprehensive services to domestic violence and rape victims. Services include a 24/7 hotline, shelter, case management, court advocacy, transitional housing, child care and forensic exams. In addition to crisis services, Partnership operates Deaf, Elder, Youth and Family Strengthening Services.
