Partnership Receives Joint Donation from Verizon and Magic Lamp Entertainment

CHATTANOOGA, TN – Partnership for Families, Children and Adults is the grateful recipient of a joint donation from Verizon and Chattanooga-based Magic Lamp Entertainment. The two companies share one thing in common: Ashley Brookman. Brookman is the CEO of Magic Lamp Entertainment (a character-themed event planning venture) and she's also a sales representative with Verizon. When Magic Lamp Entertainment hosted a Princess-themed Mother's Day Tea Party in May, Brookman committed a donation to Partnership from those proceeds. And when her employer Verizon got wind of her efforts, they offered to match her donation. At the event, Brookman also hosted free of charge three families who are living in Partnership's shelter. Partnership is grateful for local and national businesses like Magic Lamp and Verizon that support our efforts to empower people and build community!

The Verizon logo, consisting of the word "verizon" in a bold, black, lowercase sans-serif font, followed by a red checkmark symbol.

The general manager of the Gunbarrel Verizon store, Zach Nelson, will accompany Brookman to the check presentation on Friday, June 8th at 10 a.m. at the Partnership office at 1800 McCallie Avenue.
